1. Runway construction at the Turany airfield near Brno is being carried out on a 24-hour basis. Extra shifts of workers have been added and night work is being carried out under flood lights.
2. The gasoline storage area at the Prague-Ruzyne airfield has been enlarged through the construction of several underground tanks, capacity unknown, in the area along the street which runs from Ruzyne to Slany (N 51/F 50). Barriers have been erected in the northwest corner of the airport blocking off a section of the Ruzyne-Slany highway, and traffic has been diverted around the blocked-off area. Allegedly the gas tanks will be located directly under the present surface of the blocked-off street.

SOURCE:

1. The following installations are located on Petrin Hill, Prague III, near Hradcany Castle:
 - a. A radio jamming device.
 - b. A military radar station at which the Czech armed forces are testing various models of radar equipment.
2. The checks of both devices are carried out in collaboration with Czech Air Force units located at Ruzyne airfield. A number of special flights, apparently in connection with radar testing, are made from Ruzyne.
3. The air raid shelter constructed in the Hradcany area during World War II for use by Reichsprotektor Reinhardt Heydrich is being renovated and enlarged. The shelter is located in the Hirschgraben behind the Riding School at Hradcany.
